The construction equipment industry in INDONESIA

Indonesia is the largest construction equipment market in Southeast Asia. It enjoyed record equipment sales in 2022 as the mining market boomed, and the outlook remains good thanks to the country's mineral wealth. Indonesia is also the region's major equipment production hub with several of the industry's largest global manufacturers operating factories in the country.

At more than 200 pages, Off-Highway Research's Special Report on Indonesia is believed to be the most detailed and comprehensive study ever produced on the country's construction equipment industry.
